Navigating a school booth: Communicating with schools

School booths are designed for you to network and talk to school recruiters from a specific school campus

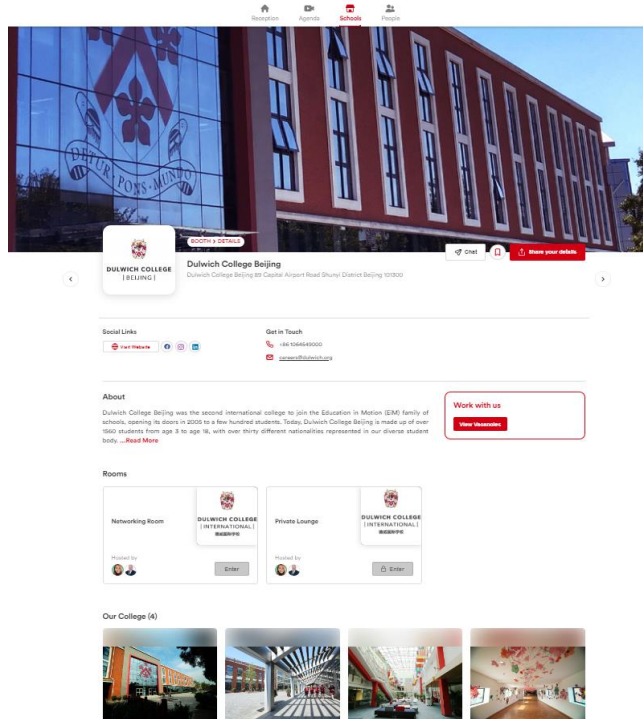

Selecting the schools tab will take you to the booth gallery

Schools

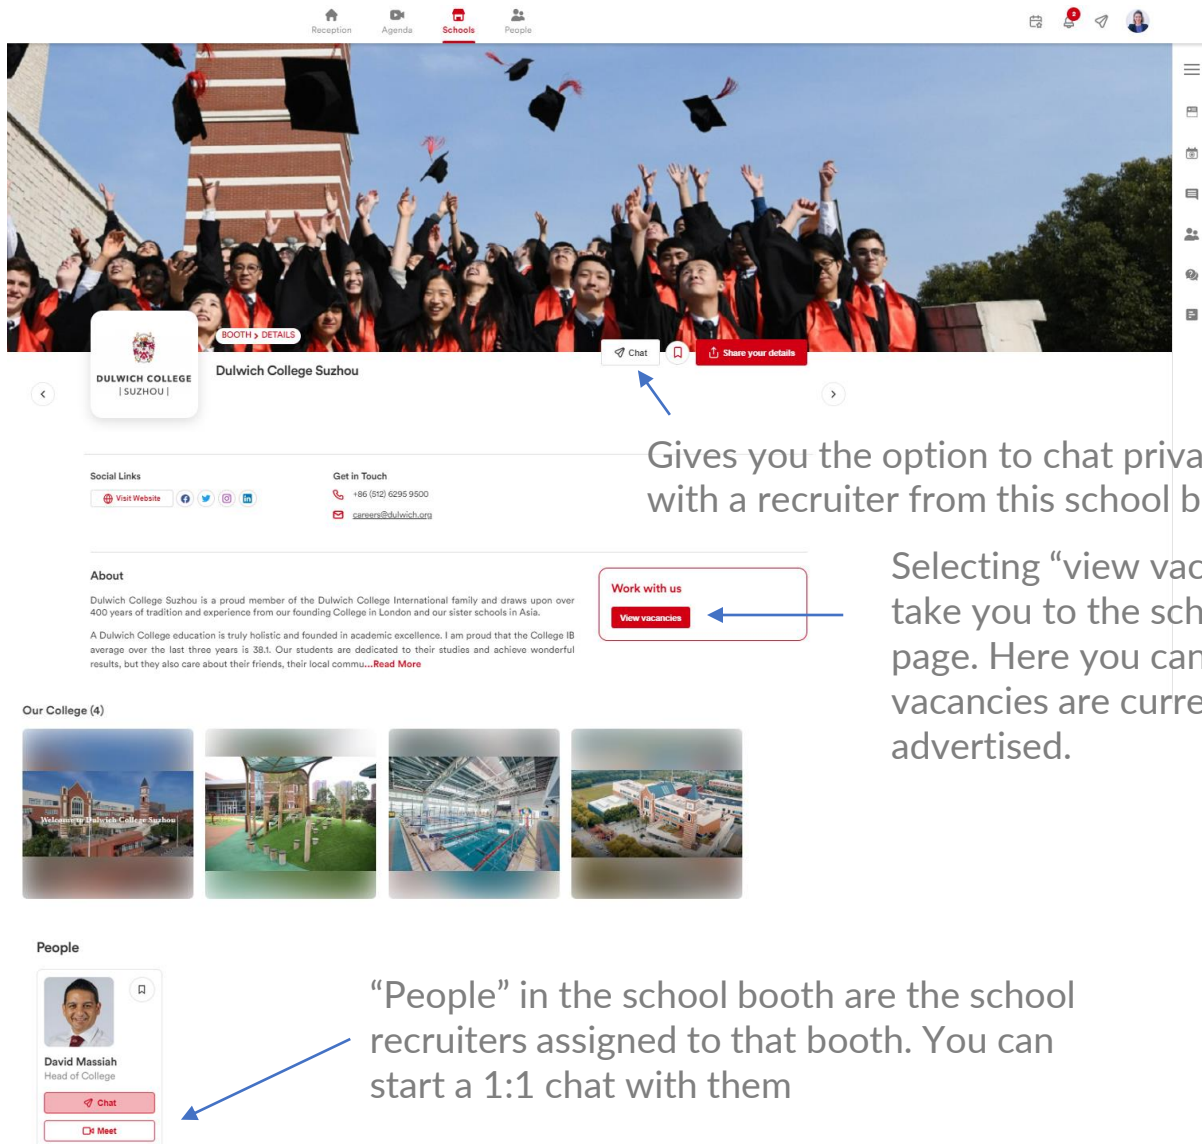

Click on the school booth you would like to enter

We're with you

Navigating a school booth: Communicating with schools

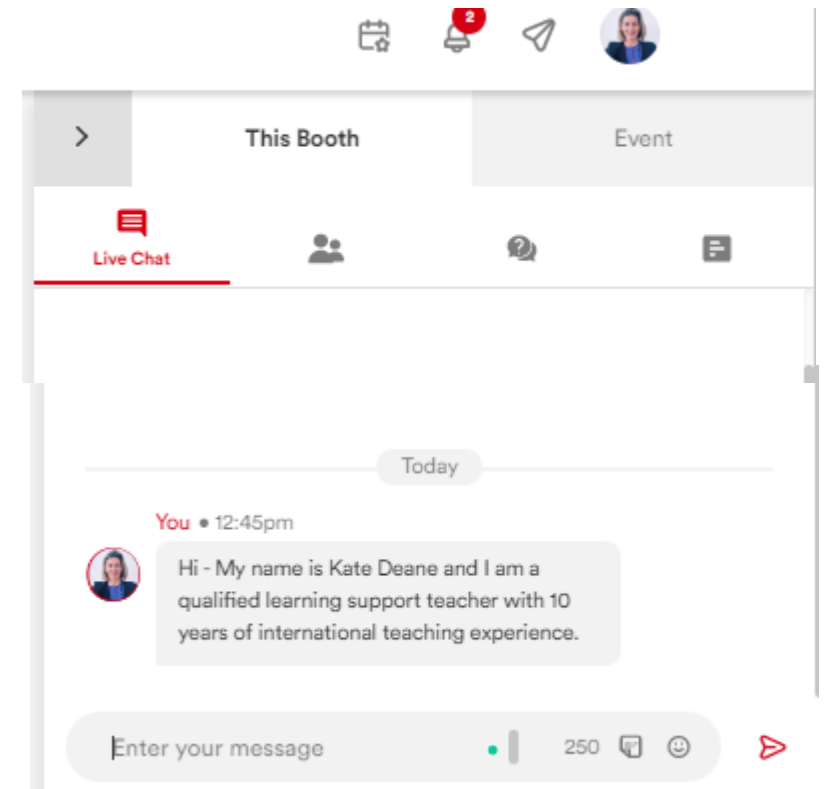

Gives you the option to chat privately with a recruiter from this school booth.

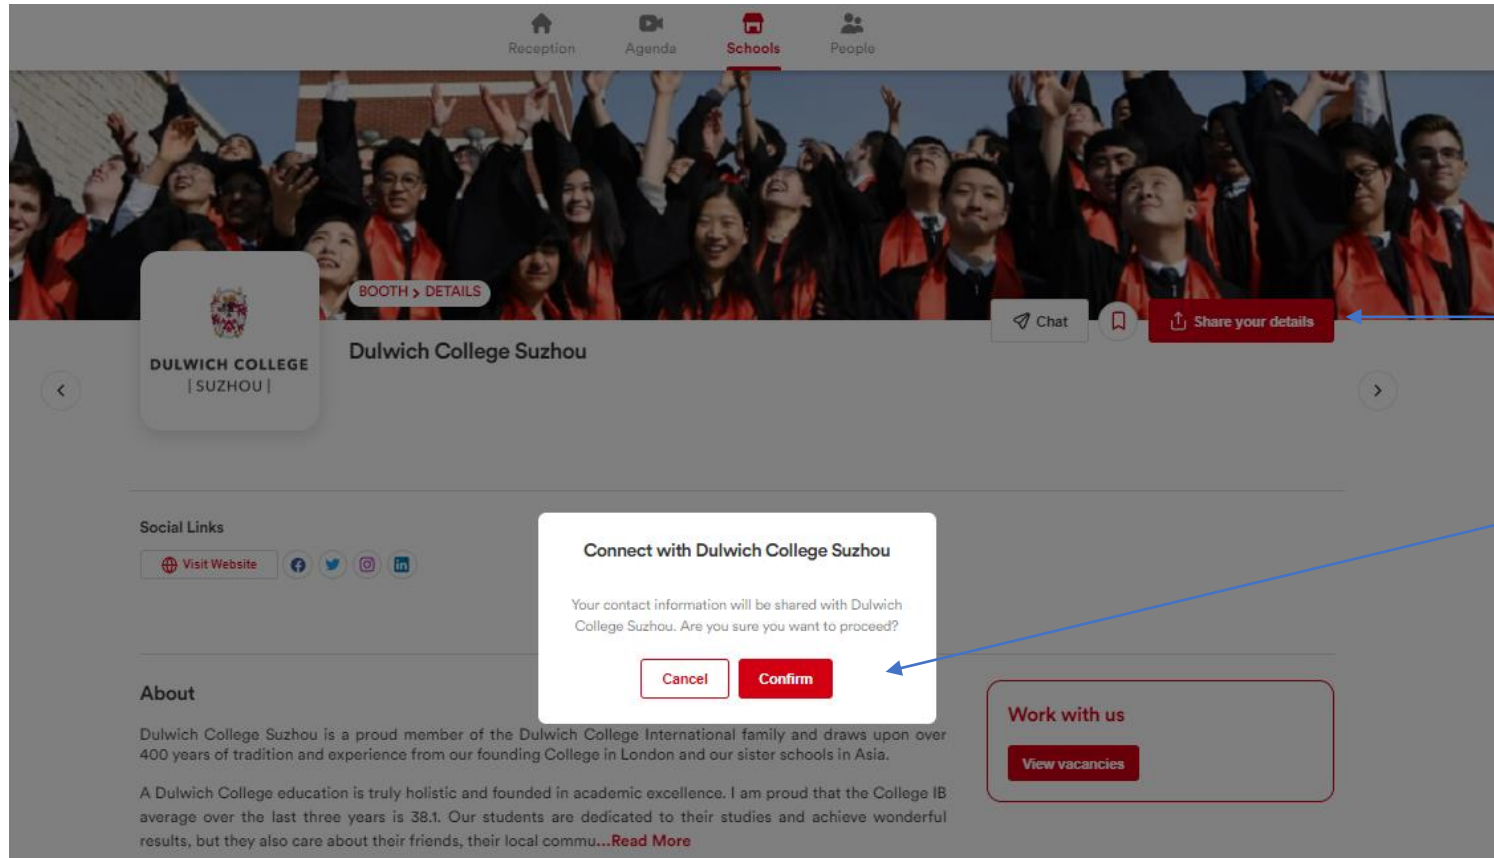

Selecting "view vacancies" will take you to the schools vacancy page. Here you can view what vacancies are currently being advertised.

"People" in the school booth are the school recruiters assigned to that booth. You can start a 1:1 chat with them

The menu tab inside a school booth, opens the "live chat" for the specific school booth. Use this chat to write an introductory paragraph about yourself for a school recruiter to view.

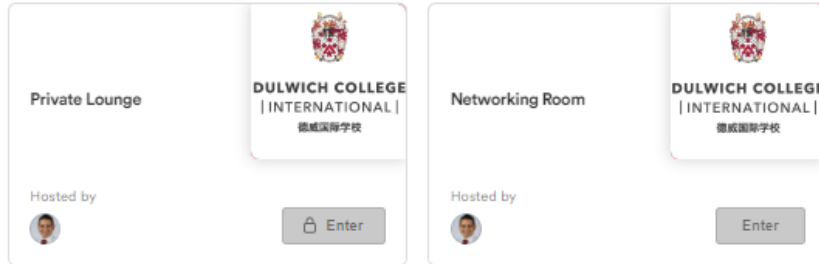

Navigating the school booth – Communicating with schools

By selecting the “Share your details” button, this is a virtual version of dropping off a business card to let a school know you are interested in their school. The school will receive a notification that you have shared your information and will reach out if they wish to start a conversation.

Navigating the school booth - Entering rooms

Rooms

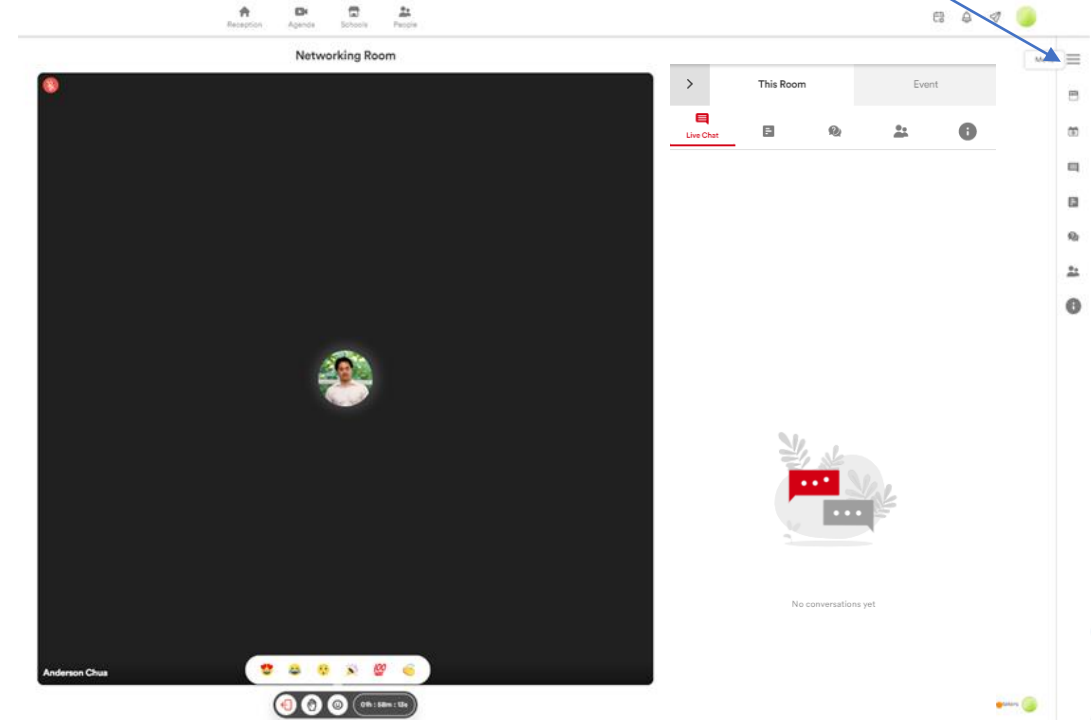

- The purpose of the Networking Room is to allow candidates to drop in, submit questions and interact with a recruiter.
- Private Lounge requires a code to enter, a recruiter may invite you to the lounge for a private conversation.

Note that a maximum of 12 candidates can participate by in a conversation, with entails using video, audio and screen sharing.

When the maximum is reached you will be joined as a spectator. This will allow you to listen in on the group discussion and engage in the discussion via the live chat function. This will be visible to those in the room.

Live chat can be found by expanding the menu tab.

As you join a "Networking Room", to participate in a conversation with video/audio please "raise your hand".
